

IN SEARCH OF WONDERS

North Caucasus DOLMENS

By Boris Loza, PhD

Contents

List of Figures
Introduction: Where It All Began
Part I: Dolmens: Ancient Mystic Megaliths
North Caucasus Dolmens
Properties of the Dolmens
Dolmen Differences
Who Built the Dolmens
First Attempts to Study Dolmens
Dolmen Anatomy
Elongated Skull Connection
Why the Dolmens Were Built
Tree of Life
Talking Stones
Flesh Eaters
Asian Connection
Indian Connection
Greek Connection
Olmec and Mayan Connection
Sun Worshipers
Dolmens and Archeoastronomy
Dolmens and the Paleolithic Calendar
Progress-Boosting Technology and Baby-Making Machine
Ancient Dark Retreat or π Prisoner Movie Cinema^{ll}
How the Blocks Were Quarried and Processed
Location of Dolmen Quarries
Wooden Wedges
Stone Softening
Soft Sedimentary Rock Method
Concrete Casting Technique
Plaster Casting Technique
Processing the Blocks
Percussion and Pressure Flaking Technique
Shamir
Making the Dolmen Entrance
The Incredible Sciences of the Ancients
Transporting the Megalithic Blocks
The Push-Pull Method
Balance Method
Vajra
How the Blocks Were Lifted
Ramps and Belts
Moving Blocks Using Acoustics
Telluric Energy
Etheric Vapor
Part II: Dolmen Mysteries, Healing, and Power
Enigmas and Unexplained Phenomena
False Entrance Enigma
Cap-Shaped Depressions Enigma
Shapsugsky Triangle: Anomalous Zone
Double Stars, Ancient Astronauts, and UFOs
Puzzles of the Dolmen Signs and Symbols
Phosphenes

Petroglyphs
Dolmens and Tamgas
Dolmens and Runes
Mysterious Artifacts and Geological Formations
Stone Gears
Stone Mushrooms
Cult Stone with Seats
Kurgan Artifacts
Maykop Slab
Mahoshkushha Petroglyphs
Urushten Idols
Loops Plate
Dolmen Power
Egregore and Dolmen Power
Dolmens and the Tarot
Dolmens and Orbs
Dolmen Healing and Spirituality
Hidden Power of the Dolmens
Healing Power of the Dolmens
Dolmens and Living and Dead Waters
Part III: Future of the Dolmens
Lost Dolmens
Preservation of Dolmens
Appendix 1: Visiting the Dolmens
About Krasnodar
International and Distinctive Cuisine
Appendix 2: Getting the Most from Your Trip
Read as Much as You Can Make a List
Pack Light
Personal and Food Safety
Lost in Translation
Transportation Tips
Choosing a Place to Eat
Check Visa Requirements
Prepare Sightseeing in Advance
Respect Local Customs and Traditions
Money and Other Necessities
Miscellaneous Tips
Conclusion
Image Credits
References
Dolmen Power
Index
About the Author

List of Figures

Figure 1. Physical map of the North Caucasus
Figure 2. Dolmens in Abkhazia and Gelendzhik
Figure 3. Old postcard showing a dolmen near Gelendzhik
Figure 4. Map of the dolmens of the Krasnodar Krai
Figure 5. Tiled-type rectangular dolmen
Figure 6. Composite dolmen

Figure 7. Rock-hewn dolmen
 Figure 8. Sarcophagus-like dolmen
 Figure 9. Dolmen plugs
 Figure 10. Rock-hewn Volkonsky dolmen
 Figure 11. Set of stamps issued to commemorate Olympic Games in Sochi
 Figure 12. Dolmens with different shapes for the entrance hole
 Figure 13. Dolmens with a \Uparrow false \llcorner plug
 Figure 14. Dolmens with interlocking walls
 Figure 15. Dolmens with decorative geometric patterns or bas-reliefs.
 Figure 16. Decorations inside of the dolmens
 Figure 17. Dolmens with courtyards
 Figure 18. Illustration from the old book showing giants building dolmens for dwarfs
 Figure 19. Old photos of dolmens in France and Africa
 Figure 20. First drawings of dolmens
 Figure 21. Old drawings of dolmens
 Figure 22. Photo of the round dolmen
 Figure 23. Sectional drawing of a dolmen
 Figure 24. Bosses of a symbolic megalithic structure in the Sagrada Familia
 Figure 25. Trapezoid-shaped dolmens
 Figure 26. Polygonal masonry in dolmen construction
 Figure 27. Megaliths in the painting Death of Atlantis
 Figure 28. An example of Sumerian architecture
 Figure 29. Elongated skull found in Kabardino-Balkaria
 Figure 30. Elongated skull found in Tajikistan
 Figure 31. A person suffering from tree-man syndrome
 Figure 32. Sarcophagus-like dolmens
 Figure 33. The stone lid of Pakal's sarcophagus
 Figure 34. Plain of Jars, Laos
 Figure 35. Dolmens with an image of a symmetrically rectangular shape
 Figure 36. Buddhist toran in India and a Japanese Shinto torii
 Figure 37. Kami shrine, used in the Shinto religion.
 Figure 38. Dolmen \Uparrow Klady 3 \llcorner in Adygea
 Figure 39. Dolmen-like ironwork
 Figure 40. Oeil-de-boeuf element and \Uparrow dragon holes \llcorner
 Figure 41. Ancient Hittite table
 Figure 42. Airavatesvara Temple at Darasuram and a linga
 Figure 43. Dolmen in Mexico
 Figure 44. Altar 4 from La Venta, Mexico
 Figure 45. \Uparrow ffig in Mayan structures, Mexico
 Figure 46. The Devil's Doorway in Peru
 Figure 47. Door to the Otherworld located in Yazilikaya
 Figure 48. Concentric circles and sun symbol on dolmens
 Figure 49. Sun symbols on dolmen plugs
 Figure 50. Pyramid-shaped dolmen
 Figure 51. Zigzag patterns on the walls of a dolmen
 Figure 52. Distribution of dolmens in the Western Caucasus
 Figure 53. The most important archaeological sites of the North Caucasus
 Figure 54. Stone marks at one of the megalith quarries in Axum, Ethiopia
 Figure 55. Stratum of sedimentary rock and rocky outcrop of sandstone
 Figure 56. Dolmen showing chiseled hole marks.
 Figure 57. Stone block with wooden wedges inserted.
 Figure 58. Rounded edges of blocks of dolmens
 Figure 59. Dolmen \Uparrow "Strong Woman"
 Figure 60. One of the dolmens from the \Uparrow city of dolmens \llcorner

Figure 61. Pattern on a dolmen with a closeup of the fragment
 Figure 62. Dolmen with an intricate bas-relief
 Figure 63. Dolmen at Psynako 1 megalithic complex
 Figure 64. Dolmen near Prigorodnyy village and a closeup of a false plug
 Figure 65. Dolmen blocks that were soft at the time of connection
 Figure 66. Dolmen with a false plug in the Pitsunda area
 Figure 67. Author investigating cart ruts in Malta.
 Figure 68. A wall inside of a semimonolithic dolmen
 Figure 69. A dolmen on a farm on the Doguab River
 Figure 70. Dolmen from Vozrozhdenie village
 Figure 71. Inner surface of the dolmens treated with percussion flaking
 Figure 72. Ball found in a dolmen near the village of Shepsi
 Figure 73. Unfinished tiled dolmen in the π Wolf Gate^{ll} tract
 Figure 74. Unfinished entrance to a dolmen
 Figure 75. Bracelet made of polished stone and Greek Antikythera device
 Figure 76. Moving a statue in Twelfth Dynasty Egypt
 Figure 77. Moving a block of stone as part of a ritual on Nias Island in Indonesia.
 Figure 78. π Opened^{ll} vajra and a π closed^{ll} vajra
 Figure 79. Sumerian god Adad, Aztec god Tlaloc, and modern Ukrainian coat of arms
 Figure 80. Yakov Blyumkin
 Figure 81. Royal crown and a dome of the St. Peter's Basilica
 Figure 82. Star of David and the French fleur-de-lis
 Figure 83. Steps for dolmen-building technology using ramps
 Figure 84. Baba Yaga flying in a mortar
 Figure 85. Edward Leedskalnin
 Figure 86. John Keely in front of his machine
 Figure 87. Dolmens near the village π Kamenny Karier^{ll} and from the π Wolf Gate^{ll}
 Figure 88. Author in front of the false door in Axum, Ethiopia
 Figure 89. Author in Bolivia in one of the false doors of El Fuerte de Samaipata

 Figure 90. Cup-shaped depressions on dolmens
 Figure 91. Unfinished dolmen in the π dolmen workshop^{ll}
 Figure 92. Map of the Shapsugsky Triangle
 Figure 93. The sacred Silver Spring in the Chamomile Meadow
 Figure 94. The Devil's Thumb in the Shapsugsky Triangle
 Figure 95. Grand Shapsug Dolmen
 Figure 96. Tree of love.
 Figure 97. Stone plates with unusual patterns
 Figure 98. Dolmen with bas-relief and round projections
 Figure 99. Dolmen in the Bol'shoye Pseushkho area
 Figure 100. Ornaments on the slabs of dolmens
 Figure 101. Phosphenes observed inside the human visual cortex and eyes
 Figure 102. Two-headed Mount Nexis with the π moon^{ll} dolmen
 Figure 103. Dolmen with petroglyphs and drawings of the petroglyphs
 Figure 104. Dolmen Hamyshki-1, resembling a tamga, or seal
 Figure 105. Examples of Adyghe tamgas.
 Figure 106. The runic alphabet known as the Futhark
 Figure 107. Runes on a dolmen and a drawing of the runes
 Figure 108. Mysterious megaliths found among dolmens.
 Figure 109. Geological formation in the shape of mushroom
 Figure 110. Megalith with two π seats^{ll}
 Figure 111. View of a Scythian Alexandropol kurgan before excavation
 Figure 112. Findings from kurgan (barrow) number 11

Figure 113. Plate from Kurgan Serebrajnuyj
Figure 114. Stone with double spirals and the ancient symbol of yin and yang
Figure 115. Mysterious column of unknown origin and a large round stone plate
Figure 116. The TMaykop slab^{ll} with unusual symbols
Figure 117. Mahoshkushha petroglyphs
Figure 118. TIdols^{ll} in the form of a human head with a face.
Figure 119. The Looꝑs plate
Figure 120. Major Arcana tarot cards
Figure 121. Human-like image of the Bogatyr (warrior) mountain
Figure 122. Geometrical images on some of the dolmens
Figure 123. Image from the book Malleus Maleficarum.
Figure 124. Sculptures on an oeil-de-boeuf architectural element
Figure 125. Orbs visible on a dolmen
Figure 126. One of the so-called Tornaments^{ll} inside a dolmen at Mount Nexis
Figure 127. Examples of pottery with grooved ornaments
Figure 128. Relief in the form of a stylized human figure
Figure 129. Replica of a dolmen made by the author
Figure 130. Example of artificially made dents
Figure 131. Alley of dolmens on the Bogatyr road
Figure 132. The largest monolith dolmen on the Bogatyr road
Figure 133. Destroyed dolmen
Figure 134. The destroyed dolmen-monolith in the village of Beregovoe
Figure 135. Old photo of a dolmen near the village of Kalezh
Figure 136. Dolmen in the village of Kalezh with a broken roof
Figure 137. Dolmen from the village of Shkhafit
Figure 138. Picture showing the dolmen submerged in concrete
Figure 139. Shukhov Tower
Figure 140. Nutria

<https://www.amazon.com/dp/B07KJH385W>